HERE'S A LOOK AT WHAT WE'RE LEARNING!

Math

Students will be learning about charts and graphs over the next few weeks. Students will need to the difference between a tally chart, bar graph, pictograph, and picture graph.

Literacy

Students will use story elements when reading fiction books. They will need to know characters, setting, problem, and solution. They will also need to know question words such as Who?, What?, When?, Where?, Why?, and How?

Units

Students will finish life cycles this week. Students will have an assessment on Friday!

Students will be learning about pronouns this week. Students need to know that pronouns take the place of nouns in sentences. Students will also begin learning about visualization so that they can write better. Students will begin learning about poetry soon.
